To Whom it May Concern.

I am against the CT's Early Prison Release System. My brother who has been a repeated offender of non-violent crimes since 2000 has been in and out of jail since then. He was release when Jodi Rell introduce this and has not learned by this. My family and I have seen a trend in his crimes worsening. It started with small act as stealing from the family to as recent as auto theft, identity theft. He has a child in which I have custody of through DCF and will be adopting. It is very apparent to me that these criminals are not and can not be functioning members of society. They live a trace of tragedy behind and it further offends me of the right that they even have in prison. They do not care and do not take responsibility for their actions. Please do not entertain the thought of the Ct Early Prison Release System

Sincerely,
Karen Roy
